

Our Town

Celebrating 50 Years of Municipal Government in Glovertown

The new book entitled "Our Town" presents historic highlights about Glovertown. Part 1 is a fascinating treasure trove of pictures and words about mayors, councillors, town staff and local issues of municipal concern. Part 2 presents important historic information about Glovertown churches, schools, fire departments, resettlement, entrepreneurs, volunteer organizations and medical services.

Here's just a sample of what Our Town contains:

- Highlights from Town Council minutes 1954-2003
- Information about Glovertown schools from late 1800s til now
- Historic details about the Anglican, Seventh-day Adventist, United, Salvation Army, Roman Catholic and Pentecostal churches
- Descriptions of local entrepreneurs and enterprises
- Fire department story
- An analysis of resettlement in Bonavista Bay
- A portrayal of local volunteer organizations
- A vivid description of the Town's medical services
